OCTOBER'S WEDDING BELLS

Merrily They Will Ring During This and Coming Weeks. Gossip About People.

Tears.
Tears, idle tears, I know not what they mean,
Tears from the depths of some divine despair,
Rise in the heart, and gather to the eyes,
In looking on the happy autumn fields,
And thinking of the days that are no more.

Fresh as the first beam glittering on a wall,
That brings our friends up from the underworld;
Sad as the last which reddens over one
That sinks with all we love below the vege;
So sad, so fresh, the days that are no
more.

Ah, sad and strange as in dark summer
dawns,
The earliest pipe of half-awakened birds,
To dying ears, when unto dying eyes,
The casement slowly grows a glimmering
square;
So sad, strange, the days that are no
more.

Dear as remember'd kisses after death,
And sweet as those by hopeless fancy
fed,
On lips that are for others; deep as love,
Deep as first love, and wild with all regret;
O Death in Life, the days that are no
more.

HORSE SHOW WEEK.

City Full of Guests—Clubs to be Centers of Hospitality.

Richmond is full of guests for Horse Show week, and their advent, together with the superb October weather renders the atmosphere full of social gaiety and hospitable intent.

Mrs. W. L. Royall will be a hostess of Tuesday next, in honor of Miss Page Aylett Royall's visitors, Miss Helen Warren, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Miss Henrietta McCrea, of Chicago. Mrs. Royall is noted for her agreeability in the art of entertaining and Miss Royall, who is a later edition of her mother, will, with her young friends, be prominently associated in the pretty affairs of this gala occasion.

Miss Louise McAdams will have with her on Monday, Miss Adeline Hammond, of Washington, D. C., who was her guest last year, and who will be warmly welcomed by the friends she made last year. Miss McAdams and her friend will occupy a box for several nights during the show.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pendleton Campbell and their daughters, Miss Joannette and Miss Alice Campbell, of Pittsburgh, Pa., are at No. 115 East Franklin Street, and will be in Richmond during the week, as participants in the show from a social standpoint. The Misses Campbell are granddaughters of the distinguished Alexander Campbell, of Bethany, W. Va., founder of the Christian Church and of Bethany College, and one of the most celebrated pulpit orators of his day.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Potts, of Cincinnati, are expected to be in Richmond during next week. Mrs. Edgar Potts, of Hot Springs, Va., is with Mrs. W. G. Stannard; Mrs. Craighill, of Lynchburg, with Miss M. P. Harris; Miss Mary Bolens, with Mrs. Edgar Gunn; Miss Hathaway and Miss Fisher, of Chester, Pa., with Mrs. A. F. Hunt; Mrs. Horace Brinslow, of Detroit, with Miss Nancy Cooke.

Mr. and Mrs. Heth Lorton, of New York, will reach Richmond to-day, and give several large parties during the week to their friends.

Miss Valerie Jewell Sandford, of Hartford, Conn., accompanied by Mr. Pye, of that city, is visiting Miss Hester Cabell Tabb, No. 205 Monument Avenue. Several box parties and other entertainments will be given Miss Sandford during the week.

Club Doors Wide Open.

The Westmoreland Club is in new and most becoming array, without and within, by way of suitable preparation for receiving Horse Show visitors, and the Chief Executive of the American nation, who arrives on October 18th.

Harmonizing with its architectural design, the club house has been painted in Colonial buff and white. Wall hangings in drawing-rooms, dining-rooms and sun-parlor, have been freshly done in red, contrasting prettily with the white enamel paint throughout the interior. The doors of the club will be thrown wide during the week, for the first time since the improvements have been made, and with Thillow's orchestra, to render a beautiful programme each evening, and lovely decorations in the way of palms and American Beauties, the prestige always held by the Westmoreland, will go beyond the record of any former year.

The present prospect for charming little post-show dinners and suppers as well as for more elaborate affairs, indicates that the thoughts of society will make the club an important centre of gaiety. A feature of the week will be the after-dinner dances that have always proved so attractive.

Among those who have already signified their intention of being hosts at the club for several nights during the show are Dr. Joseph A. White, Mr. John D. Potts, of Cincinnati; Mr. Roger A. Pryor, Jr., of New York; Mr. S. H. Hawes, Mr. R. L. Winston, Mr. John Winston, Mr. P. W. Smallman, Mr. Maurice O. Brooks, Mr. A. J. Gray, Jr., Mr. James B. Cannon, and many others. An excellent menu has been prepared, from which entertainers may make a varied and choice selection.

The Commonwealth Club, like the Westmoreland, will keep open doors during the week, and will be the scene of many informal and formal affairs. Its spacious rooms and charming surroundings rendering it an ideal place for the choice of those who desire to extend hospitality in graceful guise. The club will be very handsomely decorated on the occasion of President Roosevelt's coming to the city.

Already the orange and blue, the Horse Show colors, are being displayed in the windows. They will drape the boxes of the Horse Show building, where the beauty of fashion of Richmond will assemble Tuesday evening.

Many October Weddings.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Barnes announce the engagement of their daughter, Edna, to Mr. Eugene Holt, of Burlington, N. C. The marriage will take place very quietly on October 25th.

Hill—Morrisette.

Professor and Mrs. Ellhu Morrisette have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mattie Estelle, to Mr. William Henry Hill, on Tuesday morning, October 11th, at 11 o'clock, in their residence, No. 2738 East Grace street, Richmond, Va.

Miss Penn's Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Penn, of Martinsville, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Sallie, to Mr. Harry Davis Vickers. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride, November 8th.

Matthews—Turner.

The following from "The Washington Post" of Saturday is of much interest to Virginians. It says:

Among out of town weddings to-day of interest to Washingtonians is that of Miss Augusta Turner, daughter of Geo. Turner, of George County, Va., and William B. Matthews, Jr., of this city, son of Hon. William B. Matthews, of Virginia and Washington. Mr. Matthews is a lawyer, associated with the firm of Douglass & Douglass; a lineal descendant of Gov. Samuel Matthews, the first Governor of "Old Point Virginia Plantations," 1630. Miss Turner is a member of one of the first families of the Old Dominion. The wedding will take place at Baltimore, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Elliot, former rector of St. Andrew's church, of this city, who is a friend of the Matthews family. The bride party from this city includes the families and intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom. They will upon their return reside on Corcoran street, where their new home awaits them.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement is announced of Miss Emily G. McCay, of Baltimore, to Mr. Joel S. Perrin, of Richmond, the wedding to take place on the 16th of November. Only the immediate families will be present, on account of mourning in the homes of both of the contracting parties.

Crenshaw—Walford.

The wedding of Miss Estelle Walford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Walford, to Mr. W. D. Crenshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Crenshaw, will be quietly celebrated at 6:30 P. M. on Wednesday, October 11th, in the home of the bride, No. 802 East Clay, the Rev. Daniel T. Merritt, of Williamsburg, Va., the cousin of the bride, officiating. No cards have been issued in Richmond.

Ellis—Holland.

Miss Bessie Archer Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Holland, will be married Thursday, October 11th, at 6:30 in the evening to Mr. Alpheus Danney Ellis. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's parents, No. 1019 Floyd Avenue. Miss Holland is a graduate of the Woman's College, where she studied voice culture. She has sung for several years in various choirs of the city. Among them Centenary Methodist and Immanuel Baptist, and has attracted much attention by her sweet-toned voice. Mr. Ellis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Ellis of Gloucester, and is in business here.

Waters—Davis.

Much interest is felt in Richmond society in regard to the wedding of Mrs.

Margaret Bass Davis, of New York city, to Mr. Hood Waters, of Baltimore. The ceremony will be performed in the green drawing room of the Jefferson Hotel, at 6 P. M., on Wednesday next, October 11th, the Rev. Dr. George H. Spooner, of Broad Street Methodist, and the Rev. Dr. W. E. Evans, of Monumental Episcopal Church, officiating.

Mrs. Davis is an authoress and a contributor to many of the leading American magazines, who has been carrying on her literary work in New York, though she is of southern birth, and nearly connected with the Rose family of Virginia. She has been at No. 115 East Franklin Street, since arriving in the city. Mr. Waters is the son of a well known Methodist minister in Baltimore, a nephew of John Milfin Waters, and a cousin of Governor Warfield, of Maryland. He belongs to several of the athletic and sporting clubs of the Monumental City.

Drawing room decorations at the Jefferson will be in palms and roses. Jordin's orchestra will play the wedding chorus from Lorenzini and during the marriage service Rubenstein's "Thou Art Like unto a Flower."

The celebration will be very quiet, in accordance with the wish of Mrs. Davis, and without attendants. The bride will be exquisitely gowned in an imported Parisian creation of pink lavender Florentine silk, made en princess, embroidered on one side and trimmed in point lace. She will wear a Gainsborough hat of lavender chiffon velvet and tulle, with willow plumes, and carry a coronation bouquet of purple orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Waters will leave by the 8:30 train for Washington, New York, on an extended trip West. After several months' travel they will make their home at No. 123 Harlem Avenue, Baltimore.

Out-of-town guests coming to Richmond for the wedding will be Dr. and Mrs. G. M. D. Central, of Little Rock, Arkansas, and Mr. Charles Atwell Fricker, of Columbus, Ga., relatives of the bride; Captain Frank De Witt Ramsey, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Mary Waters, of Baltimore, the sister of the groom.

Willis—Bullock.

The announcement of the wedding of Miss Virginia Garrow Bullock, of Vicksburg, Miss., to Mr. George Willis, of Wheeling, W. Va., taking place in the Church of the Transfiguration, New York, at 6 P. M. of October 24, cannot fail to be of interest in Richmond, where the groom was for years engaged in insurance business, and where he is pleasantly remembered.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. G. C. Houghton, and was witnessed by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Wheeling, W. Va., will be the future home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis.

Guests at Miniboya.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott Parrish will have as their guests at "Miniboya" during Horse Show week Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Beardsley, Jr., of Auburn, New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Hazard Lippincott, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Invitations Issued.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Virginia Barbee, of Washington, D. C., for the marriage of her daughter, Frances, to Mr. Richard Kidder Meade, of Clarke County, Va.

The wedding date has been set for the evening of October 18th, in Temple Baptist church, Washington, D. C. Mr. Meade has a number of relatives in Richmond, who will be interested in news of his wedding.

Paintings and Drawings.

Miss Emma Whitfield will give an exhibition of paintings and drawings, most of which were done by her during last summer near the University of Virginia, from October 10th to 18th, in the exhibition rooms of the Richmond Art Company, at No. 5 East Broad street, this city.

Among studies of special interest are "Monroe Hill," a former home of President Monroe; the University chapel and a portion of the serpentine wall, known as "Smith's Alley."

Birthday Party.

The birthday party of the day evening last at the Richmond Art Club is the might interest you. Truth is, the display just now is so very interesting, so very beautiful, that we cannot subdue our enthusiasm; hence, write about them, even as when you see them you'll talk about them—yes, praise them.

Viewing the display collectively, you'll behold—Rich-hued Velvets! Luxurious Beaver Felts! Superb Ostrich! Paradise! Great wide-petaled Velvet Roses! Shaded Ribbons! Dashing big Buckles! Sparkling touches of gold and silver, out of homage to the resplendent Empire modes that give the key-note for fashions—how could one view them all and resist utterance of praise?

The all-important feature, however—the inspiration of the hour—is realized in our display of

Exclusive Horse Show Types

We'll Hold Up This Trio for Your Mental Viewing.

A Picture Chapeaux in tones of Red from golf to wine—underbrim of shirred Ribbon and Malins, the crown manipulated into the most fanciful design! Three Huge Ox-rich Plumes at side—A Paris Model.

A Horse Show Type in Turquoise Blue Velvet, faced with gold and—facing effect poised on a high side bandol concealed by platings of tulle, the crown draped with two Huge White Plumes, finished with a full blown rose and foliage of gold.

A Mushroom Hat—in Jacqueminot Velvet—its crown surrounded with multi-colored roses, scarf and facing of black crepe chiffon. One of Caroline Ribaux conceptions. Wonder did she get her inspiration viewing a glorious sunset.

Our talented artists, appreciating the social importance of the Horse Show event, and anticipating the exacting requirements of our patrons, have prepared a most extensive collection of these fanciful plume-laden confections. Chapeaux that are also par excellence for October weddings, and the teas and receptions that will usher in the social season.

Hospital Board.

The first full meeting of the general board of the Sheltering Arms Hospital, will be held Monday at noon. The ladies desire a large attendance.

Box Party.

The T. N. F. Social Club, gave a delightful "Box Party," Thursday night at the home of Miss Ella Felvey, in Fairmount. Games of all kinds were indulged in until a late hour, when all repaired to the dining room where the beautifully decorated boxes, containing all the delicacies of the season were opened.

Among those present were Misses Mamie Bialkowski, Ella Felvey, Blanche Garring, Elizabeth Helker, Agnes Halko, Gertrude Krug, Marie Prater, Alma Schadt, Bertha and Mamie Vonderheir, Katie Walsh, and Little Lillian. Vonderheir, Joe Woodson, Messrs. Joseph Amrhein, Charles Bialkowski, Albert Katke, Frank Moltz, Charles Shaunesey, Russell Schadt, Ferdinand Volkman, Alfred Wilkerson, Fred, Willkump, George W. Lewis, N. Still, Frank Chappell and Henry Melkel.

Unique Entertainment.

Among the unique entertainments to be given during horse show week will be a "Military Evueche," by order of officers J. C. Kent, Thomas G. Correll and James A. Smith, taking place Monday evening, October 24th, and accompanied by Mrs. William Law Clay and Mrs. Correll.

Ladies of the Club.

The officers and members of the Woman's Club in Richmond are unwilling to have the date of President Roosevelt's visit approach without the mention, in connection with it, of a Richmond organization of women and their effort to extend to the chief executive of the American nation, the hospitality due him and themselves in his coming to the city.

The committee appointed by the club, Miss Ruthven, Mrs. L. L. Lewis and Miss Guillaume, as long ago as March, when the President's Southern trip was first mentioned and it was then thought that Mrs. Roosevelt would be in his party conferred with Dr. Thomas Nelson Page of Washington, as to the propriety of sending an invitation from the club to the President and his party. Congressman John Lamb, to whom the ladies were referred by Dr. Page, advised them to write at once, and directly to Mr. Roosevelt. They did so and received from him a courteous reply, thanking them for their letter, but saying that arrangements had not then sufficiently matured to enable him to answer them with any certainty.

Later, when the Southern trip became a certainty, they renewed their invitation. Mr. Roosevelt, through his secretary, Mr. Loeb, assured the ladies that he would be glad to accept their invitation, if the programme arranged for him in Richmond would permit him to do so.

The ladies' committee then forwarded Mr. Loeb's communication to Mr. Curtis, chairman of the men's committee on arrangements. At first, Mr. Curtis thought a visit from the President to the club might be arranged for afterward, as the ladies regretted extremely to hear he decided that such a visit would be impossible during the limited time of Mr. Roosevelt's visit.

The ladies understand the position of Mr. Curtis and his committee thoroughly, but they wish to express through the press the desire they felt to do honor to the foremost man of the United States and of the world, and the steps they took to materialize their desire.

New Camp of Sons.

A new camp of the Sons of Confederate Veterans was organized Tuesday at King William Courthouse. The camp will be known as the Douglas-Carter Camp, and Mr. S. S. Robinson was made commander, with W. A. Villeroi, adjutant. Arrangements are being made to send charter members as follows: Ro. Garrett, Julian Bagby, H. C. King, W. A. Villeroi, H. W. Neale, A. S. Neale, S. S. Robinson, T. B. Neale, W. T. Neale, W. W. Gray, T. H. Edwards, Roy E. Cabel, and William E. Croxon.

Daughters to Meet.

The Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold a very important meeting at Lee Camp Hall, next Wednesday afternoon, October 12th. Mrs. Norman V. Randolph, who attended the meeting of the Wholesale Druggists' Association, in New York, last week, has returned, and will preside at the meeting.

Final arrangements will be made for the State convention of Daughters to meet in Richmond on November 8th. Mrs. Randolph will announce the different committees, as well as matters arranged that anxious to have matters arranged that the Richmond Chapter may sustain its prestige for graceful hospitality at the
